

Language: Cause and effect

Exercise 13

- 1 a People have more disposable income than previous generations [C], which means that most people can now afford to go on holiday [E].
b The rapid rise in air travel [E] stems from the creation of low-cost airlines [C].
c Competition between airlines [C] has led to lower prices for passengers [E].
- d Staff working for our national airline keep striking [C]. As a result, many people avoid booking with them [E].
e I suffer from seasickness [C] so I never travel by boat [E].
f The severe delays [E] were brought about by the volcanic eruption [C].
- 2 C = cause; E = effect